

The best wedding venues in Los Angeles and beyond

0 ADD COMMENT

0 LOVE IT

The best wedding venues in LA and beyond vary from a beautiful mansion to lush gardens, Malibu ranches and coastal gems

Photograph: Courtesy Calamigos Ranch
Calamigos Ranch wedding.

A lot goes into picking the right wedding venue—cost, location, vibe, indoor/outdoor options, venue rules—so it's hard to pinpoint the best wedding venue for every couple out there. Believe it or not, there are indeed some cheap wedding venues in LA, or you can keep it simple and opt for a courthouse wedding too—but just in case you're looking for a wide variety of top-notch spots, we've gathered up the places that we consider the best wedding venues in Los Angeles and nearby. A few may be out of your price range (unless you have a giant engagement ring on your finger), but these are some of the most beautiful places in the city that you can visit, wedding or no wedding.

Note: Some starting fees include the venue rental only while other starting prices have a variety of inclusions. Please contact the venues directly for more pricing information.

Mission Inn

Looking at how grandiose and beautiful the Mission Inn is, you may think having your wedding here would be in line with the cost of having a ceremony at the Huntington. But in reality, the Mission Inn is one of the best steals in Southern California. Though not located in LA (it's in Riverside), the Spanish-style hotel and spa's beautiful chapels and other locations for both ceremony and reception are worth the drive. A luxurious ceremony and reception, complete with a champagne and cheese cocktail experience followed by a multi-course plated dinner, can be had for roughly $30,000. We challenge you to find a place with a similar setting and perks for that price anywhere else, which is what lands it on this list. Rental fee prices start at $1,500. Contact Mission Inn to find out what else is included in this price.

<http://www.timeout.com/los-angeles/things-to-do/the-best-wedding-venues-in-los-angeles-and-beyond>